SENIOR FELLOWS

CONUS and Week 5 Senior Fellow

General Lori J. Robinson

General Lori J. Robinson retired from the Air Force in July 2018 following a 36-year military career, including Commander of North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD) and US Northern Command (NORTHCOM). In those positions she commanded 1,600 Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, Coast Guardsmen and civilians from the United States and Canada. Working with the Governors of all 50 states and their Adjutants General, she was responsible for coordinating the activities of 300,000 National Guard forces that could be tasked for response to natural disasters or internal defense of the United States. Reporting directly to the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of Canada, she was responsible for early warning and engagement of air and space threats to the United States and Canada, including the ballistic missile threats from North Korea.

Prior to her command of NORAD/NORTHCOM, she was the Commander, United States Air Forces Pacific, responsible for 45,000 Airmen to deliver combat air power throughout the Pacific Theater. She exerted direct global influence representing the Chief of Staff of the Air Force in meetings with heads of state, political and military leaders throughout the Pacific.

General Robinson served in many other senior leadership positions including: Director of Joint Capabilities Development (J-8) reporting to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Director of Air Force Legislative Liaison on Capitol Hill reporting directly to the Secretary of the Air Force, responsible for budget issues and coordination with political leadership in the House and Senate. Earlier in her career she commanded the Air Force's only Airborne Warning and Control Wing (AWACS) including command of combat units engaged in the Middle East. General Robinson's entire career demonstrates remarkable achievements at the highest levels of war fighting operation, diplomatic engagement and political coordination.

General Robinson has earned two Masters degrees, served in a fellowship at the Brookings Institution, and completed the Senior Executive Fellows program at Harvard. General Robinson continues to serve as a role model and mentor to career-minded men and women who seek to balance the demands of career with personal and family responsibilities. She is married to Major General (Ret) David A. Robinson. They reside in St. Pete Beach, FL.

EUCOM FIELD STUDY

Philip “Phil” Breedlove
General
United States Air Force
(Retired)

Former Supreme Allied Commander Europe
Commander, U.S. European Command

Phil Breedlove is employed as a Senior Fellow for the National Defense University in support of the Pinnacle, Capstone, and Keystone programs.

General Breedlove culminated 39 years of active-duty military service as Supreme Allied Commander Europe (SACEUR) and Commander, U.S. European Command, where he answered directly to NATO’s highest governing body, the North Atlantic Council, to the President of the United States, and to the Secretary of Defense. He led the most comprehensive and strategic structural and policy security changes in the Alliance’s 70-year history. His diplomatic skills reassured Allies, deterred potential aggressors, and maintained Alliance unity during the most dynamic and challenging period since its inception. He led the forces of 28 nations and multiple partners in ensuring the security of an alliance that accounts for more than half the world’s GDP.

As Commander, U.S. Air Forces Europe and Air Forces Africa, General Breedlove was responsible for organizing, training, equipping and maintaining combat-ready forces while ensuring theater air defense forces were ready to meet the challenges of peacetime air sovereignty and wartime defense. This diverse portfolio included both theater and operational air and ballistic missile defense, areas where his operational designs remain in place today.

As Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force, he presided over the Air Staff and served as a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Requirements Oversight Council and Deputy Advisory Working Group during a period of intense challenge, including devising measures to meet the requirements of the the Budget Control Act’s required $480 billion reduction of the Department of Defense budget. Accordingly, he led the organization, training and equipping of more than 690,000 people serving in the U.S. Air Force and provided oversight of its $120 billion annual budget.

As Assistant Chief of Staff for Air Operations, Plans and Requirements, General Breedlove directed all Air Force operations across the globe, oversaw strategic and operational planning, and set the requirements for all Air Force procurement. Additionally, he was one of two original authors of the Defense Department’s Air-Sea Battle Concept.

General Breedlove served in a variety of assignments leading up to those leadership positions, including commanding a squadron, a group, three fighter wings, and a Numbered Air Force in service across three different continents. His extensive command and control experience in wartime, contingency planning, and humanitarian relief actions include operations in Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

He earned his Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology and a Master of Science in Aerospace Technology from Arizona State University. Additionally, he completed a Masters of International Security Affairs from the National War College, a Fellowship in International Security Affairs, Seminar XXI from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and completed Leadership at the Peak at the Center for Creative Leadership Colorado Springs.

Breedlove currently serves on the Georgia Tech Advisory Board, as a Distinguished Professor in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs at Georgia Tech, as a Senior Advisor to Culpeper National Security Solutions, and on the Board of Directors of the Atlantic Council.

(RETIRED)

Former Commander
Air Force Materiel Command

Gregory “Speedy” Martin is employed as a Senior Fellow for the National Defense University in support of the Pinnacle, Capstone, and Keystone programs.

General Gregory S. Martin retired from the United States Air Force on 1 September 2005 after thirty-five years of active commissioned service. His final duty was as the Commander of the Air Force Materiel Command where he commanded nearly 80,000 personnel who are charged with the responsibility for the Air Force Science and Technology, Acquisition Support, Test and Evaluation and Weapons Systems Sustainment and Logistics missions. During his tenure in this duty, General Martin initiated the most significant organizational and process transformation in the history of the Air Force Materiel Command. Centered around the “Lean Engineering Model”, AFMC achieved unprecedented “on time” maintenance and logistics performance improvements while at the same time reducing costs to the operational commands by 20%.

In his previous assignment, he was the Commander of the United States Air Forces Europe, Air Component Commander US European Command and the Commander for NATO’s Allied Air Forces North. In those capacities, he commanded the United States, Alliance and Coalition Air Forces during Operations Northern Watch (Northern Iraq No-Fly Zone) Joint Forge, Joint Guardian (Bosnia and Kosovo), and Atlas Response (Mozambique Flood Relief). Additionally, he commanded the joint and allied air forces in the European theater of operations as they conducted long range combat employment missions, humanitarian relief, special operations sustainment, and the largest post-WW II combat airdrops as a part of Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

A career fighter pilot with more than 4600 flying hours, mostly in the F-4 and the F-15, General Martin flew as a combat ready pilot, flight leader, instructor pilot, operations officer and squadron commander in various assignments throughout the world to include a combat tour in Southeast Asia where he flew 161 combat missions. He also commanded three fighter wings: The 479th Tactical Training Wing and the 33rd and 1st Fighter Wings.

General Martin also had a rich variety of staff assignments which included operations and training, programming and budgeting, joint operations and force planning, joint and Air Force operational requirements and Air Force Acquisition. His senior level positions included being the Vice Director, and acting Director, of the Joint Staff’s J-8 Directorate, Director of Air Force Operational Requirements and Principal Deputy to the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition.

Since retiring, General Martin has performed Senior Mentor duties with the Joint Forces Command. He has served on two Defense Science Board Studies, has been selected as the Chairman of the National Academies Air Force Studies Board, Board of Directors and the MITRE Air Force Advisory Board. He is also a consultant to many defense sector firms (see page 2).

Admiral Kurt W. Tidd, USN (Ret.)

Admiral Kurt Tidd retired after a forty-year Navy career, settling in the Florida Keys and is pursuing new interests and adventures.

He is the son of a destroyerman, brown water sailor, and career Surface Warfare Officer Vice Admiral Emmett H. Tidd and Margaret P. “Muggs” Tidd, both proud Texans of the Greatest Generation; brother of the 25th Naval Chief of Chaplains, Rear Admiral Mark L. Tidd, CHC, USN (Ret.); husband of career military physician Eileen S. Tidd, MD, MPH, FACP; and rightfully proud father of two strong and talented daughters. He is a 1974 graduate of Porter Gaud School in Charleston, South Carolina, a 1978 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, and has a Masters in political science from the University of Bordeaux, as a 1984 Olmsted Foundation Scholar.

Admiral Kurt Tidd proudly served with the incredibly talented and professional women and men of all branches of the Armed Forces, the Foreign Service, Federal Law Enforcement officers, and the Intelligence Community. He commanded the destroyer USS ARTHUR W. RADFORD (DD 968), Maritime Task Force 55 and Destroyer Squadron 50, EISENHOWER Carrier Strike Group/CSG EIGHT, U.S. Naval Forces Southern Command/U.S. Fourth Fleet, and military operations in Latin America and the Caribbean as the Geographic Combatant Commander of U.S. Southern Command. He served in a variety of Navy, joint, and interagency staffs, including for the Secretary of the Navy, the Chief of Naval Operations, the Joint Staff, and the National Security Council.

Currently Admiral Tidd supports a variety of benevolent organizations and interests. He is the Chairman of the Board at the Olmsted Foundation, a private non-profit organization that provides two years of postgraduate studies at foreign universities in a foreign language for a select number of future military leaders. He is also a Senior Fellow at National Defense University’s CAPSTONE/KEYSTONE/PINNACLE program, mentoring Flag and General Officers and Senior Enlisted Leaders. He recently joined the Advisory Board of the Spirit of America Foundation. Admiral Tidd volunteers his time to support a number of worthwhile causes, including the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, the Coral Restoration Foundation, and Key Dives of Islamorada, Florida’s Reef Clean Up activities. He preserves adequate time to indulge passions including scuba diving, road cycling, and saltwater fishing.

CAPSTONE Staff

Gerard “Gerry” M. Mauer, Jr.
Director
Capstone, Keystone, Pinnacle

Rear Admiral Mauer retired from the Navy in March 2008 after over 31 years of service, which included extensive experience in fleet operations, resource management, technical innovation, Joint Professional Military Education (JPME), interagency coordination, and leading organizational change in NATO and joint commands.

From 2008 to 2011, RADM Mauer was a Group Vice President for Sabre Systems Inc. He was responsible for developing then implementing the corporate strategic plan and managing the Southeast Region’s profit and loss operations, its contracts, corporate business development, human resources programs, and Capability Maturity Model Integration (CMMI) level III attainment. After leaving Sabre Systems, RADM Mauer had positions as an Associate with Burdeshaw Associates, as a Senior Analyst for Wikistrat, as a Board member and Board Treasurer for the Navy Safe Harbor Foundation, and as a representative and the national Co-Chair for the US Global Leadership Coalition’s Veterans for Smart Power.

Admiral Mauer’s last position in the Navy was from 2006 to 2008, when he served as the Commandant, Industrial College of the Armed Forces (ICAF). He was responsible for executing the congressionally mandated and accredited master’s degree senior Professional Military Education curriculum. As a university leader, he directly supported the direction of the National Defense University and was a key member in the development of the University’s strategic plan.

From 2003 to 2006, he served as the NATO Allied Command Transformation’s Director, Joint Experimentation, Exercises, and Assessment, where he developed and implemented NATO’s largest Concept Development and Experimentation program. The scope included creating NATO’s transformation strategic vision and aligning the vision with its concepts and requirements. As a result of his initiatives, NATO rapidly implemented new processes, policies, and systems in support of its forces in Afghanistan and Iraq as well new capabilities to support its political and military infrastructure in NATO headquarters.

From 2001 to 2003, he was the Deputy, Directorate for Information Operations (J39/DDIO), Joint Staff Director of Operations (J-3) where he was responsible for direct coordination with the Office of the Secretary of Defense staff, Combatant Commands, and interagency organizations in their global information operations. In this capacity, his responsibilities also included supervision and operational coordination of the Joint Staff’s Special Technical Operations information system and its programs.

Admiral Mauer graduated from Villanova University and the Naval Postgraduate School. He was a Naval Aviator who commanded Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadrons SEVEN (HS-7) and TEN (HS-10) in addition to assignment as the Commanding Officer of USS NASSAU (LHA 4). NATURE SCOPE AND EXTENT OF RESPONSIBILITIES

President of Team Nellis, LLC, a corporate entity controlling multiple rental properties across the southwestern United States. Manages four professional property managers in four cities providing quality housing. Has overall responsibility for managing the day-to-day business of the corporation.

Brigadier General Martin F. Klein

Commanding General, Deployment Support Command (DSC) and Deputy Commander for Mobilization, SDDC

Brigadier General Martin F. Klein is the Commanding General, Deployment Support Command in Birmingham, Alabama and the Deputy Commander for Mobilization for the Military Surface Deployment and Distribution Command at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois.

Commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Infantry in 1991 through the Reserve Officers Training Course, General Klein was assigned as an Infantry Platoon Leader and later as a T.O.W. Platoon Leader, 1-87th Infantry, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, N.Y. Transitioning to the Logistics Corps, he was assigned as a Supply Platoon Leader and later Battalion S-4 of the 10th Forward Support Battalion. During this time, Klein participated in Operation Hurricane Andrew Relief and Operation Uphold Democracy in Haiti.

Upon completion of the Combined Officer Logistics Advanced Course, General Klein was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division where he served as a Division G-3 Plans Officer, the Division Materiel Officer, and the Battalion S-3 for the 407th Forward Support Battalion. In 1999, Klein assumed command of HQ/A Company, 407th FSB. After command, Klein was selected as the Aide-de-Camp to the Commanding General for 1st COSCOM (ABN) until his selection as an Intern to the Joint Staff Logistics Directorate, Pentagon. While there, General Klein served as the Executive Assistant to the Director of Logistics; upon completion, he was assigned to the Army G-4 as a Logistics Transformation Staff Officer.

General Klein left active duty in 2003 and was employed as a brand manager for Kraft Foods in Chicago, Ill. As a traditional Reservist, he was assigned as an Observer Controller and G-3 Plans Officer in the 1st Brigade, 85th Division at Fort Sheridan, Ill. He was later selected to serve in the Active Guard and Reserve (AGR) program with an assignment to Georgetown University ROTC, where he served as the Battalion Recruiting Operations Officer and the Battalion Executive Officer.

Following this assignment, the general transitioned to the Operations Research Systems Analysis (ORSA) career field, where he served as a Senior Training Analyst in the Office of the Chief of Army Reserve (OCAR) and a Reserve Component Manning Program Analyst with the Army G-1. While assigned to the Army G-1, he deployed to Iraq, serving as the Chief of Operational Assessments, J-5 (Strategy) United States Forces-Iraq, supporting Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation New Dawn. Upon redeployment, General Klein was assigned as Branch Chief in OCAR Plans, Analysis, and Evaluation Directorate, and later as the Reserve Component Analyst, Army G-8. His most recent assignment was as the Deputy Commander, Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, N.J.

General Klein is a graduate of the Infantry Officer Basic Course, Combined Officer Advanced Course, the Command and General Staff College and the Army War College. He holds a Bachelor's of Business Administration from Lenoir-Rhyne University, N.C., a Master's of Business Administration from Webster University, Mo., and a Master's of Strategic Studies from the Army War College.

His awards and decorations include: the Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (6), Joint Commendation Medal, Joint Achievement Medal, Army Commendation Medal (2), Army Achievement Medal (4), Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal (2), Humanitarian Service Medal (2), Ranger Tab, Senior Parachutist Badge, Rigger Badge, and the Joint and Army Staff Identification Badges. BG Mark O'Donnell

Deputy Commanding General - Operations

82nd Airborne Division

BG Mark O'Donnell was commissioned in the Infantry upon graduation from the United States Military Academy in 1990. His first assignment was with the 9th Infantry Division at Ft. Lewis, Washington. He continued to serve in the brigade as the unit reflagged as the 199th Sep Inf Brigade and then reflagged again as the 2nd ACR and conducted a unit move to Ft. Polk, Louisiana. After completion of the Infantry Officer Advanced Course (IOAC), BG O'Donnell served as a staff officer and company commander in 1-325 AIR (82nd Airborne Division), and then later as a staff officer and company commander in 1st Ranger Battalion.

Following the Command and General Staff College (CGSC) in June 2001, BG O'Donnell moved to Ft. Wainwright, Alaska and served as an S3 and XO in the 172nd Sep Infantry Brigade. This was followed by an assignment at the United States Army Special Operations Command (USASOC), and then reassignment to the 75th Ranger Regiment where he served as the Regimental S3.

BG O'Donnell commanded 1st Battalion, 32nd Infantry Regiment, 3 BCT, 10th Mountain Division at Ft. Drum, New York. Later, he served as the Commander of 3rd Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment and then assumed duties as the Deputy Commander of the 75th Ranger Regiment. After completion of the Army War College in 2013, BG O'Donnell returned to Ft. Drum to command 1st BCT, 10th Mountain Division (LI). After command, he served as the 10th Mountain Division Chief of Staff, then deployed with the division headquarters to Afghanistan for service as the USFOR-A Chief of Staff. In November 2016, he was assigned to the US Army War College as the Director of the Army Strategic Education Program. He remained at the Army War College until 2018, when he was assigned to serve as the Deputy Commanding General for Sustainment in the 82nd Airborne Division.

BG O'Donnell holds a Bachelor of Science from the United States Military Academy, a Masters in Military Arts and Science from the Command and General Staff College, and a Masters in Security Studies from the United States Army War College. His operational experience includes six deployments to Afghanistan, and one to Iraq.

BG O'Donnell grew up in a military family and is the son of a career Infantry and Special Forces officer and veteran of the Vietnam War. Mark is married to the former Lauren Cook of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, his high school classmate. They have been married for 29 years, and completed every day of their Army journey together. Mark and Lauren have two children - Nicholas (19) and Abigail (16). Lauren is employed by Penn State University's Clearinghouse for Military Family Readiness.

Mark's interests and hobbies are centered on his family. An avid soccer player, Mark enjoys watching both of his kids play high school and club soccer. As a family, the O'Donnell's enjoy being outdoors and love to canoe and fish.

BIOGRAPHY

U.S. Border Patrol
Customs and Border Protection
Department of Homeland Security

Anthony J. Porvaznik officially took command of the Yuma Sector Border Patrol and was promoted to the Senior Executive Service in April 2015.

CPA Porvaznik oversees approximately 900 personnel and an area of operations covering 126 linear miles of U.S./Mexico international border, and over 180,000 square miles within the states of AZ, CA and NV. He oversees integrated Counter Network Operations by focusing cross-departmental capabilities on strategic objectives throughout a Joint Operating Area (JOA). Chief Porvaznik coordinates and manages joint missions with Department of Defense (DOD) and Department of Homeland Security (DHS) components to enhance the integrity of the southwest border through the implementation of tactical operations and programs.

He holds various leadership roles in coordination efforts with DOD commands, DHS agencies, in addition to state, local and tribal entities throughout the JOA to extend the border and institutionalize an asymmetric operational agility to impact targeted Transnational Criminal Organization networks and their operatives exploiting the southern border.

CPA Porvaznik was selected for promotion to a variety of executive leadership positions within the special operations command, serving as the National BORTAC Commander, the Special Operations Group (SOG) Director, the Patrol Agent in Charge of the El Paso Sector Special Operations Division and a BORTAC Tactical Team Leader. He managed numerous national and international special operations missions for BORTAC, Border Patrol Search, Trauma, and Rescue (BORSTAR) and the Mobile Response Teams. Chief Porvaznik led the transformation and unification of all USBP tactical teams into one unit—BORTAC, and developed the first comprehensive SOG Intelligence Unit. Additionally, CPA Porvaznik drove the development of the Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, and Explosive (CBRNE) program leveraging the expertise of partner agencies, ensuring accountability and clarifying CBP's special operations role in responding to CBRNE incidents.

CPA Porvaznik and his wife Stephanie have been married for over 24 years and have a daughter, Hannah.

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

Brig. Gen. C. McCauley von Hoffman

Brig. Gen. C. McCauley von Hoffman is the Commander, Ogden Air Logistics Complex, Hill Air Force Base, Utah. As commander, she leads a team of more than 8,500 personnel performing depot maintenance, repair, overhaul, and modification of the A-10, C-130, T-38, F-16, F-22, F-35, and the Minuteman III Intercontinental Ballistic Missile system. The complex also oversees the national-level airpower reservoir for aircraft storage, reclamation, regeneration, and disposal at Davis-Monthan AFB, Arizona. Additionally, the complex produces aerospace commodities that include electronics, avionics, instruments, power systems, and software for the assigned weapon systems, and is the landing gear center of excellence for the Air Force. Her responsibilities extend to operating locations in Japan, Colorado, Nebraska, Texas, California, Florida, Wyoming, North Dakota, and Montana. The Ogden Air Logistics Complex directly supports a global supply chain enabling Department of Defense and allied combat operations.

General von Hoffman hails from Columbus, Mississippi and received her commission through ROTC at Vanderbilt University in 1989. She began her career as a supply and fuels officer and later cross-trained into aircraft maintenance. She has since had assignments in both fighter and airlift weapon systems, logistics command and control, studies and analysis, as well as joint operations and logistics. She has published work in the Air and Space Power Journal, the Air Force Journal of Logistics, and with RAND Corporation.

Prior to assuming her current position, General von Hoffman served as the Director of Logistics, Engineering and Force Protection, Headquarters U.S. Air Forces in Europe-Air Forces Africa, Ramstein Air Base, Germany. She has held the position of Mobilization Assistant to the Director of Logistics, Engineering and Force Protection, Headquarters Air Combat Command, Joint Base Langley-Eustis, Virginia. She has commanded a squadron and group. General von Hoffman also served as both Chief of a Joint Operations Center for a combatant command and Assistant Deputy Director for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. She has served tours in the Pacific and Europe and deployed in support of several contingency operations including operations Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Provide Comfort, Northern Watch, Coronet Oak, Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom.

BRIGADIER GENERAL GREGORY T. WHITE

Director of Joint Staff, Joint Force Headquarters - Colorado

Brig Gen Gregory T. White is the Director of Joint Staff, Joint Force Headquarters - Colorado, Centennial, Colo. In this role, General White directly supervises the Joint Staff and is the Commander of the standing Joint Task Force-Centennial, responsible for leading the Colorado National Guard's response to domestic events, as directed by the Governor, and is the primary designee for Dual Status Command. He also directs the Colorado National Guard's partnerships with the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, the Republic of Slovenia, and the State of Israel. Additionally, General White is dual-hatted as the Air National Guard Assistant to the Director of Operations and Communications, Air Force Space Command (AFSPC A3/6). In this role, he ensures all ANG space units are organized, trained, equipped, and globally integrated for space operations.

General White earned his commission in May 1990 as a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy. He has served in numerous operational and staff assignments, including as the National Guard Bureau A2 Director of ISR, the Air National Guard's Senior Intelligence Officer (SIO). He has commanded at the flight, squadron and group level, and served as the Vice Commander of the 140th Wing. He has deployed six times for named combat operations, and served as an intelligence instructor and flight commander at the U.S. Air Force Weapons School. Prior to his current assignment, General White served as the Chief of Joint Staff, Joint Force Headquarters - Colorado, Centennial, Colo.
