Admiral Harry Harris, USN (Ret) Former U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Korea

Admiral Harris served as the U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Korea (ROK) from July 2018 to January 2021.

A Naval Flight Officer, he served 40 years in the U.S. Navy, retiring on 1 June 2018. He joined the State Department 3 days later. From May 2015 to May 2018, he commanded the U.S. Pacific Command (USPACOM), now known as the U.S. Indo-Pacific Command (USINDOPACOM). He is the first Asian-American to hold 4-star rank in the U.S. Navy and the first to head USPACOM. He is also the first 4-star from the Navy's Maritime Patrol Aviation community. Prior to USPACOM, he commanded the U.S. Pacific Fleet, the U.S. 6th Fleet, Striking and Support Forces NATO, Joint Task Force Guantanamo, Patrol and Reconnaissance Wing 1, and Patrol Squadron 46. He participated in Operations Attain Document (Libya 1986), Desert Shield/Storm, Southern Watch, Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, Willing Spirit (Colombian hostage recovery 2008), and Odyssey Dawn (Libya 2011). He has flown over 4400 hours, including over 400 combat hours.

From 2011 to 2013, Harris served as the representative of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to Secretaries of State Hillary Clinton and John Kerry. In this role, he traveled to over 80 different countries with the Secretary and participated in most of the Secretary's meetings with foreign leaders. He also served as the U.S. Roadmap Monitor for the Mid-East Peace Process where he travelled independently and extensively to Israel to meet with Israeli and Palestinian leaders.

Harris' personal decorations include the State Department's Distinguished Honor Award, 2 Defense Distinguished Service Medals, 3 Navy Distinguished Service Medals, 3 Defense Superior Service Medals, 3 Legions of Merit, 2 Bronze Stars, and the Air Medal (1 Strike/Flight). He received the Republic of Korea's Tong-il medal in 2014, Japan's Grand Cordon of the Order of the Rising Sun in 2018, and was made an Honorary Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) as part of the 2018 Special Honors list. He has also been decorated by the governments of France, Mongolia, the Philippines, and Singapore. He has been nationally recognized in the U.S. for his work as a champion of diversity.

Harris was born in Japan, reared in Tennessee and Florida, and graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1978. He holds master's degrees from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and Georgetown's School of Foreign Service. He did post-graduate studies at Oxford University and completed the Seminar 21 fellowship at MIT. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Harris' father served in the U.S. Navy, was a veteran of World War II and the Korean War, and was stationed in Korea and Japan after World War II until he retired in 1958. Harris' mother was Japanese. She moved to Tennessee with her husband and young son in 1958 and became an American citizen in 1974.

Admiral Harris is married to Ms. Bruni Bradley, herself a retired career Naval officer.

THOMAS D. WALDHAUSER
GENERAL
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS
(RETIRED)

Former Commander
United States Africa Command

AFRICA TRIP

Thomas Waldhauser is employed as a Senior Fellow for the National Defense University in support of the Pinnacle, Capstone, and Keystone programs.

A native of South Saint Paul, Minnesota, General Thomas D. Waldhauser (Ret.) was commissioned in 1976 as an Infantry Officer in the U.S. Marine Corps. Throughout his 43 years of military service, General Waldhauser has led at all levels, including Commanding Officer of 15th Marine Expeditionary Unit (SOC); Commanding General USMC Warfighting Lab; Deputy Commander USMC Combat Development Command; Chief of Staff, U.S. Special Operations Command; Commanding General, First Marine Division; and Deputy Commandant for Plans, Policies, and Operations at Headquarters Marine Corps. He has participated in Operation Desert Storm, Desert Shield, Enduring Freedom, and Iraqi Freedom.

As the Commanding General for both I Marine Expeditionary Forces (I MEF) and U.S. Marine Forces Central Command 1 (MARCENT), General Waldhauser led both wide-ranging organizations simultaneously, and was the last general officer to do so before the role was restructured into 2 separate general officer billets.

He was then selected to serve as Senior Military Assistant to the Secretary of Defense, operating in a highly trusted capacity to advise and shape policies and operational strategies impacting the entire DoD organization.

Subsequently, General Waldhauser was appointed Director of Joint Force Development (J7) for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. During his tenure at the J7, General Waldhauser led the development of joint operations strategies and partnered with U.S. congressional members to develop the Goldwater-Nichols Act Reform.

Prior to retiring from the military in 2019, General Waldhauser was the Combatant Commander for U.S. Africa Command (AFRICOM), where he led all aspects of U.S. security operations across the entire continent of Africa, spanning 53 nations. In this role, General Waldhauser developed overarching strategies to promote defense, diplomacy, and development throughout the region. Often working with African-nation Presidents and senior officials, General Waldhauser cultivated relationships supporting allied nations while solidifying the U.S. as a preferred partner.

General Waldhauser's post-military career includes a position on the Board of Governors for the Marine Corps Heritage Foundation, as well as his position as a Fellow at National Defense University where he assists with the CAPSTONE course for newly promoted Brigadier Generals and Rear Admirals.

General Waldhauser is a graduate of Bemidji State University and the National War College with an MS in National Security Strategies. His military awards include Defense Superior Service Medal (x3), Legion of Merit with Valor, Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal (x4), Navy Achievement Medal (x2), and a Combat Action Ribbon.

CAPSTONE Staff

Gerard “Gerry“ M. Mauer, Jr.
Director
Capstone, Keystone, Pinnacle

Rear Admiral Mauer retired from the Navy in March 2008 after over 31 years of service, which included extensive experience in fleet operations, resource management, technical innovation, Joint Professional Military Education (JPME), interagency coordination, and leading organizational change in NATO and joint commands.

From 2008 to 2011, RADM Mauer was a Group Vice President for Sabre Systems Inc. He was responsible for developing then implementing the corporate strategic plan and managing the Southeast Region’s profit and loss operations, its contracts, corporate business development, human resources programs, and Capability Maturity Model Integration (CMMI) level III attainment. After leaving Sabre Systems, RADM Mauer had positions as an Associate with Burdeshaw Associates, as a Senior Analyst for Wikistrat, as a Board member and Board Treasurer for the Navy Safe Harbor Foundation, and as a representative and the national Co-Chair for the US Global Leadership Coalition’s Veterans for Smart Power.

Admiral Mauer’s last position in the Navy was from 2006 to 2008, when he served as the Commandant, Industrial College of the Armed Forces (ICAF). He was responsible for executing the congressionally mandated and accredited master’s degree senior Professional Military Education curriculum. As a university leader, he directly supported the direction of the National Defense University and was a key member in the development of the University’s strategic plan.

From 2003 to 2006, he served as the NATO Allied Command Transformation’s Director, Joint Experimentation, Exercises, and Assessment, where he developed and implemented NATO’s largest Concept Development and Experimentation program. The scope included creating NATO’s transformation strategic vision and aligning the vision with its concepts and requirements. As a result of his initiatives, NATO rapidly implemented new processes, policies, and systems in support of its forces in Afghanistan and Iraq as well new capabilities to support its political and military infrastructure in NATO headquarters.

From 2001 to 2003, he was the Deputy, Directorate for Information Operations (J39/DDIO), Joint Staff Director of Operations (J-3) where he was responsible for direct coordination with the Office of the Secretary of Defense staff, Combatant Commands, and interagency organizations in their global information operations. In this capacity, his responsibilities also included supervision and operational coordination of the Joint Staff’s Special Technical Operations information system and its programs.

Admiral Mauer graduated from Villanova University and the Naval Postgraduate School. He was a Naval Aviator who commanded Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadrons SEVEN (HS-7) and TEN (HS-10) in addition to assignment as the Commanding Officer of USS NASSAU (LHA 4). He has vast experience at sea with deployments to the Atlantic Ocean, Mediterranean Sea, and Arabian Gulf. Ashore assignments included: Naval Postgraduate School student, Assistant Program Manager for the Naval Air Systems Command SH-60F/H helicopter program (PMA 266), and Training Officer and Instructor Pilot in Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron ONE (HS-1). Rear Admiral Kevin Byrne
Commander, Naval Surface Warfare Center/Commander, Naval Undersea Warfare Center

Rear Adm. Kevin P. Byrne is a native of St. Louis, Missouri. He attended the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, graduating with a Bachelor of Science in 1993. He attended the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California, graduating in 1999 with Master of Science in Operations Research.

At sea, Byrne served as commanding officer and executive officer of USS Barry (DDG 52). He also served as executive officer, and combat systems and weapons officer aboard USS Cape St. George (CG 71). He completed his initial sea tours as operations officer aboard USS Defender (MCM 2) and navigator aboard USS Mount Whitney (LCC 20).

Ashore, he served as major program manager (MPM) for Surface Ship Modernization for Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) Surface Directorate (SEA 21). In this position, he was responsible for the modernization of nine ship classes. Previously, Byrne served as the fleet introduction program manager for Aegis Ashore in AEGIS Combat Systems in the Program Executive Office for Integrated Warfare Systems (PEO IWS 1.0) and flag aide to Commander, NAVSEA. Byrne's Pentagon tour includes as an analyst for the Director of Program and Evaluation (PA&E) with the Office of the Secretary of Defense.

Byrne assumed duties as the commander, Naval Surface Warfare Center (NSWC) and Naval Undersea Warfare Center (NUWC) on April 20, 2020. As the commander of NSWC/NUWC, he leads more than 27,000 scientists, engineers, technicians and support personnel, both civilian and active duty, at eight Surface Warfare Divisions and two Undersea Warfare Divisions. The NAVSEA Warfare Centers provide research, development, test and evaluation for the future Navy as well as in-service engineering and logistics support for the operational naval forces.

Byrne is authorized to wear the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (two awards), Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (five awards), and the Navy Achievement Medal, in addition to various service and unit awards.

Rear Admiral Jennifer S. Couture

Commander, Naval Service Training Command

Rear Adm. Couture is a native of Vineland, New Jersey. She commissioned through the NROTC program at the George Washington University in 1995 and she received a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations. She holds a master's degree in International Studies from Old Dominion University, and she completed her Joint Professional Military Education as a student of the U.S. Naval War College and the Joint Forces Staff College.

At sea, Couture served onboard USS Wasp (LHD 1), USS Saipan (LHA 2) USS Elrod (FFG 55), USS Leyte Gulf (CG 55), and USS Porter (DDG 78). She commanded USS Kauffman (FFG 59) and Destroyer Squadron 28 where she deployed twice as the Sea Combat commander with Harry S. Truman Carrier Strike Group. She has deployed in support of Operations Joint Endeavor, Active Endeavor, Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom and Inherent Resolve.

Ashore, Couture served as current surface operations officer for Commander, U.S. Atlantic Fleet; flag secretary to Commander, Naval Surface Force Atlantic; contingency plans officer, U.S. Joint Forces Command; and, assistant chief of staff for Manning, Manpower, and Personnel (N1) for Commander, Naval Surface Force Atlantic. Couture also served as a federal executive fellow at the Center for a New American Security and as special assistant for legislative matters to the Chief of Naval Personnel.

Her most recent assignment prior to Naval Service Training Command was as director for the Commander's Action Group, for Commander, Naval Surface Force Atlantic.

She has earned numerous personal awards including the Legion of Merit (third award) as well as various other personal, unit, and service awards.

RDML Charles Fosse assumed his current duties as Director, Joint Interagency Task Force (JIATF) West on 25 June 2021. A standing Joint Interagency Task Force, JIATF West is U.S. Indo Pacific Command's executive agent for executing Department of Defense counterdrug activities in order to shape the theater and disrupt transnational criminal organizations that threaten U.S. interests in the U.S. Indo-Pacific Command area of responsibility. JIATF West leverages the diverse capabilities and authorities of its staff, complemented by relationships with dozens of partner nations to support activities that counter illicit trafficking of narcotics and precursor chemicals. RDML Fosse most recently served as Deputy Commander, U.S. Coast Guard Personnel Service Center (PSC). In that role, he oversaw execution of all human resources policies and processes for the 48,000 strong Coast Guard military workforce, including recruiting, assignments, retirements and separations, promotions, and field level personnel support. He reported to PSC after serving for two years as the Executive Assistant and Senior Military Advisor to the Assistant Commandant for Human Resources (CG-1).

During over ten years of service at sea, RDML Fosse conducted search and rescue, environmental protection, humanitarian assistance and law enforcement missions from the North Atlantic to the Caribbean, and the Bering Sea to the Equator. He began his afloat tours serving as Operations Officer in USCGC LAUREL, a 180 foot seagoing buoy tender homeported in Mayport, Florida. His operational career continued as Weapons Officer in USCGC MELLON in Seattle, Washington, as Commanding Officer in USCGC LONG ISLAND in San Diego, California, as Executive Officer in USCGC TAMPA in Portsmouth, Virginia, and as Commanding Officer in USCGC SENECA in Boston, Massachusetts.

RDML Fosse's shore and staff assignments include Operations Center Controller at Coast Guard First District Headquarters in Boston; Performance and Training Manager of operational forces at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, DC; Deputy Director for Training and Evaluation at the White House Military Office; Commanding Officer of Training Center Petaluma, California; and Chief of Enlisted Personnel Management, Personnel Services Center in Washington, DC.

A native of Southern Illinois, RDML Fosse graduated from the United States Coast Guard Academy in 1992 and in 2002 earned a Master of Science degree in Instructional Systems Technology from Indiana University. He completed a one-year fellowship with the Homeland Security Studies and Analysis Institute in Arlington, Virginia, serving as the Coast Guard liaison and subject matter expert, linking the Institute's analysis agenda with Coast Guard program requirements, while completing Coast Guard Senior Service School requirements. He completed the Naval Postgraduate School (Center for Homeland Defense and Security) Executive Leaders Program in 2016.

His military commendations include a variety of personal, unit and service awards, as well as permanent Cutterman qualification. He earned the Presidential Service Badge for successful service in support of the President of the United States, and in 2016 was designated as an Honorary Chief Petty Officer.

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

BRIGADIER GENERAL CHAD D. RADUEGE

Brigadier General Chad D. Raduege is the Director of the Command, Control, Communications, and Computers/Cyber Directorate, and Chief Information Officer, Headquarters U.S. European Command, Patch Barracks, Stuttgart, Germany. In this capacity, he leads a joint staff responsible for operating five unique networks to enable global operations. In addition, he ensures communications readiness across the European theater – with NATO, the world’s premier military alliance, and 51 countries – through policy and security cooperation efforts.

Brigadier General Raduege entered the Air Force in 1994 as a distinguished graduate of The Ohio State University ROTC program. An Operation JOINT GUARD veteran, he has commanded eight times at the detachment, squadron, group, and agency levels, to include deployed commands supporting Operations IRAQI FREEDOM and ENDURING FREEDOM. In addition, he has served as a staff officer at the Major Command, Air Staff, Joint Staff, and Office of the Secretary of Defense levels.

Previously, Brigadier General Raduege served as the Director of Cyberspace and Information Dominance and Chief Information Officer, Headquarters Air Combat Command. In this position, he was responsible for organizing, training and equipping cyberspace capability to build, extend, operate, secure, and defend the Air Force portion of the Department of Defense global network.

BRIGADIER GENERAL NORMAN S. WEST

Brigadier General Norman West is the Surgeon General, Headquarters Air Mobility Command (AMC) at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois. He is responsible to the AMC Commander for the wartime readiness of over 107 thousand active duty, Guard, Reserve, and civilian personnel at more than 100 operating locations worldwide.

As Manpower and Equipment Force Packaging Responsible Agency for national en route care (ERC) capabilities, he seamlessly solves Combatant Commander ERC requirements in support of Global Force Management capability. He does this by organizing, training, and equipping combat-ready medical forces for rapid deployment and employment using 68 specialized deployable teams and $332 million in medical War Reserve Material staged worldwide. Additionally, he oversees and executes lifecycle management for a $329 million Patient Movement Item program staged at seven centers worldwide, supporting United States Transportation Command's Unified Command Plan responsibilities. He also delivers emergency management oversight and guidance to eleven military treatment facilities and two Aeromedical Evacuation Squadrons with $9.3 million in Medical Counter-Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, and Explosives Response assets. General West also serves as the Chief, Biomedical Sciences Corps, U.S. Air Force, overseeing the professional force development and worldwide utilization for more than 2,400 officers in fifteen healthcare specialties supporting seventy-six military treatment facilities, headquarters and major command organizations.

General West has commanded at the Squadron, Group and Task Force level. Prior to this assignment, he was Commander, Task Force Medical – Afghanistan (TF MED-A) and Commander, 455th Expeditionary Medical Group at Craig Joint Theater Hospital, Bagram Airfield, Afghanistan. General West led a unified medical command consisting of 873 U.S. Army, Navy and Air Force, as well as Coalition partners from fourteen nations at forty-nine medical hospitals and trauma centers throughout the Combined Joint Operating Area – Afghanistan with a remarkable casualty survival rate of 97.9%. Likewise, he commanded the 412th Medical Group, Edwards Air Force Base, California capturing the Air Force Materiel Command's "Best Clinic" and "Best Dental Clinic". General West concurrently commanded the 374th Aerospace Medicine Squadron and 374th Medical Operations Squadron, Yokota Air Base, Japan. He led specialized warriors from five Air Force squadrons and Army Chemical Company, creating and sustaining the first nuclear emergency response task force as a consequence of the deadly earthquake, tsunami, and nuclear catastrophe in Japan. He built Operation TOMODACHI strategy and long-term nuclear response capabilities sustaining over 320,000 tsunami survivors through the airlift of 2.3 million tons of relief and 23,000 hours of nuclear detection/decontamination missions.

General West's staff assignments include the Air Force District of Washington's Command Surgeon, the Office of the Air Force Surgeon General, Aerospace and Operational Physiology Consultant at Pacific Air Forces, 18th Wing Director of Staff, Investigations Branch Chief and Headquarters Air Force Safety Center Inspector General. Moreover, General West completed senior level studies in national security strategy formulation and implementation at National War College. He focused on national security strategy while specializing in Weapons of Mass Destruction, emphasizing a comprehensive Federal and Department of Defense perspective. Finally, General West is a board certified Aerospace Physiologist.
