BRIGADIER GENERAL KRISTIN L. PANZENHAGEN

Brig Gen Kristin L. Panzenhagen is the Military Deputy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Space Acquisition and Integration, Washington, D.C. She also serves as the Space Force's University Partnership Program Champion for Purdue University.

As Military Deputy, Brig Gen Panzenhagen supports the Assistant Secretary in leading acquisition of Department of the Air Force space systems and programs to deliver combat-ready capabilities to the Joint Force. Her responsibilities include crafting acquisition strategies, guiding Department of Defense investments, promoting unity of effort across government and industry, and representing Department of the Air Force positions to the office of the Secretary of Defense, Congress, and the White House.

Brig Gen Panzenhagen entered the Air Force as a Distinguished Graduate of the Reserve Officer Training Corps at Purdue University in 2000. She began her career as an aircraft maintenance officer, then transitioned to developmental engineering, where she performed aircraft propulsion and structures research, executed space launch and on-orbit satellite operations, and led foreign materiel exploitation. She has managed multi-domain command and control, missile warning and defense, satellite ground enterprise, and assured access to space programs. She commanded at the squadron and delta levels.

General Panzenhagen deployed to Saudi Arabia as an aircraft maintenance officer for Operation Southern Watch, to Iraq as part of a contingency contracting team for Operation Iraqi Freedom, and again to Iraq as the National Reconnaissance Office lead in Iraq for Operation New Dawn.

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

BRIGADIER GENERAL JOHN M. SCHUTTE

Brig Gen John Schutte is the Deputy Commander, Fifth Air Force, and Director, Joint Air Component Coordination Element-Japan, Yokota Air Base, Japan. Fifth Air Force conducts joint and bilateral planning and engagements to defend Japan and respond to regional contingencies. In addition, the Command coordinates joint and bilateral actions and exercises with United States (U.S.) Forces, Japan, U.S. Service components, the Japan Self-Defense Force, and other Japanese organizations to strengthen bilateral interoperability. Fifth Air Force exercises administrative authority over U.S. Air Force forces in Japan, comprised of 15,000 combat ready personnel across three main operating bases, delivering combat airpower, command and control, personnel recovery, and rapid mobility.

Brig Gen Schutte entered the Air Force in 1999 through the ROTC program, graduating from the University of Virginia. His previous assignments include operational and staff tours in Europe, the Pentagon, Pacific Air Forces, and U.S. Air Forces Central Command. He is a Senior Navigator with more than 1,600 hours in numerous variants of the C-130. He holds four graduate degrees and is currently a Ph.D. Candidate at Princeton University's School of Public and International Affairs.

Brig Gen Schutte has commanded at the Squadron and Wing level. Prior to his current assignment, Brig Gen Schutte served the Deputy Chief of Staff, Headquarters United States European Command, Patch Barracks, Stuttgart, Germany. In this capacity, he directed the activities of subordinate elements under the Chief of Staff, managed day-to-day supervision of the staff, and provided counsel to the Commander, Deputy Commander, headquarters staff, and component commands for a 2,000-member warfighting headquarters.

BRIGADIER GENERAL XAVIERA SLOCUM

Brig Gen Slocum is the Mobilization Assistant to the Director of Legislative Liaison, Office of the Secretary of the Air Force. In this position, she serves as the liaison between the Air Force, Space Force, and Congress on all programs, air and space weapons systems and issues such as legislative and constituent inquiries. Brig Gen Slocum collaborates directly with the House of Representatives and Senate to secure the resources and authorities of the Department's annual budget and assist Congress in its constitutionally directed oversight responsibilities. She also prepares the Secretary of the Air Force, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Chief of Space Operations and other senior Department of the Air Force leaders for engagements and testimony on Capitol Hill.

Brig Gen Slocum entered the Air Force through the Reserve Officer Training Corps in 1999 after graduating from Syracuse University, New York, with a Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Engineering. While on active duty prior to joining the Air Force Reserve in 2006, Brig Gen Slocum served as an operational F-15E Weapon Systems Officer and an Instructor Weapon Systems Officer in both operational and F-15E Formal Training Unit squadrons. She has served in a wide range of staff and leadership positions at the Joint and Headquarters Air Force, MAJCOM, wing and squadron level, across the Combat Air Force, Mobility Air Force, and Command and Control mission sets. She accumulated over 1210 flight hours, including 324 combat hours and 60 combat sorties in the F-15E, serving in combat operations Southern Watch and Iraqi Freedom, as well as homeland defense for Operation Noble Eagle.

Prior to this position, Brig Gen Slocum was the Senior Executive Officer to the Chief of the Air Force Reserve. In this position, she represented the Chief of Air Force Reserve and Commander, Air Force Reserve Command in interactions with agencies internal and external to the Department of Defense and provided oversight and guidance to include Congressional testimony, future force briefs and Air Staff policy.

Brigadier General Jeremy Wilson

Deputy Commanding General
U.S. Army Combined Arms Center-Training

Brigadier General Jeremy Wilson was commissioned as an armor officer upon graduation from the Citadel in 1996. Wilson's initial assignment was with 3rd Battalion, 69th Armor Regiment, 1st Brigade Combat Team ("Raiders"), 3rd Infantry Division, Fort Stewart, Georgia. There, he served as a tank platoon leader, mortar platoon leader, company executive officer and assistant S3 (plans).

Wilson would be reassigned to 1st Squadron, 7th United States Cavalry, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas. While there, he served as the B Troop commander and Headquarters and Headquarters Troop commander. In 2004, he deployed his troop in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom as part of the 5th Brigade Combat Team, 1st Cavalry Division.

After completing Naval Command and Staff College, Wilson would be assigned to the 1st Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division ("Raiders"), at Fort Carson, Colorado. During this time, he deployed to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, conducting operations in both Regional Command-West and Regional Command-South.

Wilson returned to 4th ID to command 1st Battalion, 68th Armor, 3rd Armored Brigade Combat Team, from July 3, 2013 to July 31, 2015. During his time with the "Silver Lions," he supported the Global Response Force mission and deployed to Operation Spartan Shield, conducting missions in support of Operation Inherent Resolve and across the U.S. Central Command area of operations.

Upon graduating from the Army War College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, he was then reassigned to the National Training Center at Fort Irwin, California, where he served as the Chief of Staff. In 2018, Wilson assumed command of the 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas, where he led the brigade deployment in support of Operation Atlantic Resolve. Wilson would go on to serve as the Chief of Staff for the 4th ID from July 2020 - June 2022. He served as the 3rd ID Deputy Commander-Support from 2022 to 2023 and the 3rd ID Deputy Commanding General-Maneuver from 2023 to 2024. Wilson is currently serving as the Deputy Commanding General, Combined Arms Center-Training (CAC-T), Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Wilson is a graduate of both the Naval Command and Staff College, Newport, Rhode Island, and the Army War College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.
